FOR YOUR PRAYERS

Please pray for all those who attend the Memorial Service today, that they will feel welcomed and know the Lord is with them. Pray for those who may struggle with heading into winter.

Rachel Karrach, Tansen Hospital, Nepal. Please pray for Rachel and the church as this is a period when Diwali is celebrated in Nepal. They have a new CT scanner delivered to the hospital and it is due to be installed in the next few weeks. Please pray that it will be installed well and they will be able to get it into operation as soon as possible.

Helen Vipas, Hope for Children, Latvia. They need an administrator and are advertising the position. Please pray they will be able to appoint a suitable person. They are finding that more families are coming forward for help. Please pray that they will be able to select the most needy families and have the necessary finances.

Susie & Martin Goodchild are very encouraged by how the training with the RTU main leaders has gone this week. God has clearly been with us all. For the coming week we will be joined by a different group to consolidate the leadership training we all received from Freedom to Lead back in April. After that we will have a preparation meeting for leaders who will be involved in 2 new self-sustainability projects.

On Sunday 2nd we'll be heading down to the heat of Marimanti to bless the new church building at the HQ, and we're due to go back there 3 days the following week to train more pastors – heat permitting.

They are very grateful for all your prayers, which make a big difference. Please pray for God to continue to guide them as they train, for Marimanti to be cool enough for them to travel there, and for everyone's travel to go smoothly.
